

Notice: Package Change for SF7 Series

JAE will change the packaging used for the SF7 series, starting September 21, 2017. This change is being made in an effort to improve the strength and durability of the current packaging.

Applied Parts

SF7W008S1AE900

Detail

- There will be no changes to the reel container and connector performance.
- New reels may be slightly different in overall size, but near equivalent embossment structure, embossment distance, and connector quantity per reel.
- Current products using the SF7W008S1AE900 will be purchased as usual. JAE will manufacture new products for the SF7W008S1AR900.
